Westheight Homeowners Frequently Asked Questions

“HOME OWNERS REFERENCE GUIDE” AVAILABLE ON OUR WEBSITE

HistoricWestheight.org – A resource for our historic district

Over the past many months, the board of our Historic Westheight Neighborhood Association has been working to get more information out to our home owners about the opportunities and responsibilities surrounding owning a home here. At our website, we’ve set up a page with several pieces of information.

Getting to the Reference Guide, step by step

- Start at <https://www.historicwestheight.org/> which is our home page.
- From the menu at the top, you first may have to click on “more ...” to be able then to click on “Historic Status”:

<https://www.historicwestheight.org/historicstatus.html>

- Once there, the five resource pages currently available are listed, the first being “When do you need to get a permit and building inspections?”:

<https://www.historicwestheight.org/permits.html>

- Other pages that are available now are
“What online resources are available?”

“What kind of tax incentives are available?”

“Introduction to the ‘Secretary of the Interior’s Standards for Rehabilitation’”

“‘NRA’ – Can this be another tax savings opportunity in our historic district?”

What Other Questions Might There Be?

As our board continues to work on sharing more information, please let us know what YOU would like to learn more about. Use the email board@historicwestheight.org and we will try to get the information out through our newsletter, our website, and at our general meetings.

Dues are Due!

HWNA is NOT a homeowners association – we’re a 501(c)3 charitable organization created to promote Westheight and our nationally-recognized historic district. So, whether you’re a property owner, or a renter, or even just someone who loves grand old neighborhoods like ours, you can participate. We’d love for you to become an “official member” of HWNA as well.

Annual membership is just $10 per adult, so join now at www.historicwestheight.org
